Scarlett of Dartmouth is the sought-after shoal draft, scheel keel version of the Bill Dixon designed Moody 38 and offers excellent accommodation. She has a large double aft cabin and ensuite heads, a single cabin mid-ships, a double cabin with ensuite heads fwd, a well designed L shaped galley and a large comfortable saloon with ample seating, and a good sized dining table for entertaining. ??Although serviceable a new owner may wish to consider re-upholstery in some areas. Scarlett will also benefit from some other upgrading and maintenance. Recent survey available on request.

A well built yacht, with ample stowage and easy to handle in-mast sail plan, the Moody 38 has great sea keeping qualities as well as being comfortable and a joy to sail.?? Capable of long distance blue water passage making, or equally happy cruising locally as a couple or family, the Moody 38 is a fast, safe and easily sailed yacht that will prove herself time and time again.

Scarlett is complete with in-mast furling and a Bow Thruster.

OWNERS COMMENTS:

My wife and I are now well over 80 and have decided to retire from sailing. We have enjoyed the time we have owned Scarlett very much, and have often cruised with friends and family. On many occasions, we have up to 7 aboard, without feeling at all crowded. From Port Grimaud we have sailed to Cassis, to Italy, to Corsica and many other destinations with confidence that Scarlett would perform well and she did.

THE VESSEL IS LYING: Hamble
